An Overview

Blackburn with Darwen Interfaith Forum continues to work as a forum where members from all major faiths can work together to raise awareness promoting better understanding between people of faith or no faith in our local schools, colleges, places of worship and elsewhere. This work we believe continues to be of critical importance to our increasingly multicultural community.

What we all see in the media about culture clash, mistrust and suspicion amongst people from different backgrounds, I believe is born out of ignorance of the other cultures and sows the seeds of fear and hatred. We all know that ignorance only breeds ignorance and it is therefore very important to have a meaningful dialogue and to encourage people to be open about their way of life and respect other people's way of life.

This year has been difficult as there was no funding available from anywhere to expand our services by staging joint conferences and events for the benefit of the community.

As a current Chair of the Interfaith Forum, I would like to give you a resume of what we have been able to do in these difficult financial conditions over the past 12 months. Firstly, I would like to thank all the members of Interfaith forum, particularly Derek Estill who has devoted a lot of his time to set up and organise various talks and events with the help of Sadiq Patel who again has been a very good administrator ensuring that all events, talks are conducted smoothly and as planned. I would also like to thank the Community and Voluntary Service (CVS) who have been very kind to allow Sadiq to help us in his voluntary capacity and to continue to support us in so many ways.

The following are the bullet points of our work during the past year.

- Marketed our services at the University Centre on college enrolment day. Also working in partnership to develop a Peace Garden in St. Paul's Square, college camp.
- A panel of six members each from a different faith taking part in questions and answers for the children of both primary and junior schools in Blackburn & Darwen.
- Participating in the Remembrance Day parade at the Corporation Park Cenotaph.
- Holocaust Memorial Remembrance in Partnership with BwD Borough Council.
- Helped set up a Multi Faith Room and an Open day at Kingsway Extra Care Village.
- Organised an Interfaith Forum Walk in East Blackburn involving 4 Mosques and 4 Churches.
- Delivered talks on Symbols and Artefacts, 3 Faiths at a Church and 3 at a Mosque.
- Annual Remembrance Day for local people, a new project in partnership with BwD Borough Council and the Blackburn Cathedral.
- Working with Lancashire Forum of Faiths.

Again, my sincere thanks to all who have supported the work of the Interfaith Forum and hope this continues in the future.

Ashok Chudasama
Chair of Interfaith Forum.

Our Internal Structures

The Interfaith Forum holds regular committee meetings to review activities and plan future work. It is supported in doing this by CVS and we are grateful for their support, their skills and knowledge which is very much appreciated. The Interfaith Forum is aware of the need to adopt a strategic overview and make plans for the future of the organisation and as a charity complies with requirements of the Charity Commission.

Faith Representation

The Interfaith Forum provides faith representation to other bodies and to the Blackburn with Darwen Borough Council as required and is currently a member of the Children and Young People's Trust. The Interfaith Forum and is ready, willing to assist other such bodies as needed.

Interfaith Forum's 2012/13 Programme Topics

- 1) Build on work with secondary schools.
- 2) Build on work with primary and junior schools
- 3) Build on Faith and the Environment Work
- 4) Continue to facilitate the use of the Multi Faith Room in Kingsway Extra Care Village.
- 5) Continue to arrange lecture/talks/tours covering aspects of faith across all 6 major world faiths represented in the Interfaith Forum.
- 6) Build in the East Blackburn Faith Leaders' Forum
- 7) Establish a North East Blackburn Faith Leaders' Forum and Interfaith Trail.
- 8) Seek to establish and facilitate a youth Interfaith Forum in Blackburn with Darwen.

East Blackburn Faith Leaders' Forum

The Interfaith Forum has been instrumental in establishing a Faith Leaders' Forum in the East part of Blackburn between local Mosques and Churches. As part of the work of this Forum an Interfaith Trail has been established between the various places of worship and a map and leaflet produced showing the trail which gives details of the places of worship that are connected to the trail. The leaflet also contains information about the work done over the time the Forum has been working.

It is thought that it might be possible to facilitate a similar Faith leaders' Forum in the North East part of Blackburn and initial work has begun to see if this might be possible.

Faith and the Environment –The Interfaith Forum has been building on the seminar held over a year ago by working in partnership with Blackburn College and their Chaplaincy Service to create a Faith and Peace garden in the college campus. It is hoped that this will be an iterative process which continues over the next year or so engaging with the students within the college to explore the issues of faith and the environment, as well as other interfaith topics, in the course of developing the garden.

The Interfaith Forum has also been involved in both the college 'Big Welcome' and 'Freshers' Week' making contact with college students to bring the work of the Interfaith Forum to their notice and to try and establish a connect with students that are interested in this work.

Memorial Day

The Interfaith Forum is participating, in co-operation with others, to establish a Memorial Day for Blackburn with Darwen when all those who have died during the previous year can be remembered. We are very pleased to be able to make our contribution to what we hope is going to be a significant annual event for all people in the Borough of any faith or no faith.

Kingsway Multi Faith/ Interfaith Room

The last 12 months has seen the official opening of the Kingsway Extra Care Village Multi Faith/Interfaith Room with the Mayor of Blackburn officiating. We would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation for the co-operation of Housing 21 who run the Kingsway Extra Care Village and the support of the Mayor, Mrs Karimeh Foster.

Our Years Work

Remembrance Sunday

A key element of the Interfaith Forum’s work relates to our civic duty as faith communities to remember those who have fought and died in wars and conflicts. As part of this, the IFF has participated in Remembrance Sunday commemorations.

Holocaust Memorial Day

The Interfaith Forum has also played a vital part in remembering the suffering of communities on the grounds of religion. As part of this, Holocaust Memorial Day, remembering the atrocities committed against the Jews and others, is a key date in the IFF calendar.

Both these events are in partnership with Blackburn with Darwen Borough Council

Visits to Places of Worship

These have also been arranged so that pupils have been able to visit a Church, Sikh Gurdwara, Buddhist Centre, Jewish Synagogue, Hindu Temple and Mosque. Reports from schools that have been on these visits illustrate that they have also valued these trips very much.

Working with Young People

Secondary Schools

The Interfaith Forum has continued to work with Secondary Schools on Interfaith related matters. The change in grant funding availability has however meant that it has not been possible to continue 2 day out of school intensive sessions where students from different schools across Blackburn interact with each other and explore their perception or misperception about each other and their different faiths of no faith background. Looking back on previous years work it is clear that these sessions were of value and made an important contribution to those young people’s lives that took part. It is hoped that it might be possible to run similar sessions in the future.

Primary Schools

Work has continued with Primary Schools across the Borough with the Interfaith Forum’s Panel of people from 6 different faiths visiting schools and spending the whole morning there engaging with the pupils at the school. These sessions have proved to be both interesting and challenging with the pupils asking many different questions of all 6 different faiths. The Interfaith Forum has received appreciative comments from the schools that have taken part. It is believed that such interaction between adult members of the 6 main world faiths with the pupils of our local schools makes an important contribution to the community cohesion dialogue within and across the Borough.
